#90: This American Life (101 to 125)

Download .MP3

234 mins | 64 kbp/s | 108MB

Here's what This American Life is not: it's not a news show or a talk show or a call-in show. It's not formatted like other radio shows. Each episode has a theme, and there are a variety of productions on that theme. There are people in dramatic situations. Things happen to them. There are funny moments and emotional moments and—hopefully—moments where the people in the story say interesting, surprising things about it all. It has to be surprising. It has to be fun. (Adapted from the official This American Life about page.)
